Dear Sirs,

Janvrin Holdings Limited, Crossgar Limited and Ryburn Limited - v - Oliver Hilsenrath
Case No. CO2 1068CW

It has been called to our attention recently that a hearing has been set in the Federal District Court in Oakland, California, United States of America on 2nd March 2007 in the above matter. The Court has requested that personal representatives of each of Janvrin Holdings Limited, Crossgar Limited and Ryburn Limited attend this hearing. At this hearing the Court will, it appears, seek to determine whether Janvrin Holdings Limited, Crossgar Limited and Ryburn Limited intend to proceed with this litigation. (We attach a letter from Glen Westreich, dated 13 February 2007 in this regard).

At present, Crossgar Limited is not in good standing and has been struck from the BVI Companies Register for non-payment of statutory fees. It also lacks the funding to accomplish the personal appearance requested by the Court. Accordingly, we bring these circumstances to your attention and advise that we are unable to send a representative to attend the hearing on behalf of Crossgar Limited until and unless we are provided with sufficient funds to enable us to do so.

Please advise by return whether you are willing and able to furnish Crossgar Limited with the necessary funds.

 Fax number 00 415 436 7706
 From Mr Grant Brown
 Subject The Firefly Trust
 Date 20 February 2006

No. of pages 1

Dear Mr Portman and Mr Kalar

The Firefly Trust (the "Trust")

I write with reference to your fax dated 14 February 2006.

From your fax, I note that Mr Hilsenrath does not wish to be represented by a public defender in the criminal proceedings against him in the United States and that instead he wishes to retain your firm as private counsel. Clearly, it is a matter for Mr Hilsenrath as to whom he wishes to appoint to defend him in these proceedings (since the proceedings are against him in his personal capacity) and what arrangements he wishes to make to discharge your firm's fees and costs.

I confirm that it is the case that Mr Hilsenrath has requested the Trustee to make Trust funds available to him in order that he may defend the proceedings against him and that the trustee of the Trust has declined to acquiesce to his request. The trustee of the Trust has reconsidered your further request and declines to accede to your request. The Trustee does not hold the Trust property for Mr Hilsenrath under a bare trust or nominee arrangement and Mr Hilsenrath and / or any representative of Mr Hilsenrath cannot instruct the Trustee to adopt a particular course of action in order to benefit him.

The trustee of the Trust is the legal owner of the Trust property and is obliged by fiduciary and statutory duties (inter alia) to act impartially in the interests of all of the beneficiaries of the Trust (in the sense of fairly and disinterestedly) and to preserve and enhance the Trust assets. The trustee of the Trust may exercise its dispositive powers in its absolute and unfettered discretion so that the trustee is not obliged to disclose its reasons or deliberation process.

Finally, there is no question of the Trust's "seizure" of its own assets.

Yours sincerely

 Grant Brown
 Director

Equity Trust (Jersey) Limited

Dear Mr Portman and Mr Kalar

The Firefly Trust (the "Trust")

I write with reference to your fax dated 03 March 2006.

I note your position as an Assistant Federal Public Defender paid by the United States government. I further note your comment that Mr Hilsenrath does not wish to be represented by a public defender in the criminal proceedings against him in the United States.

I reiterate the point in my previous fax that it is a matter for Mr Hilsenrath as to whom he wishes to appoint to defend him in these proceedings and what arrangements he wishes to make to discharge the corresponding fees and costs.

Mr Hilsenrath does not have a fixed proprietary interest in the property comprised in the Trust fund. He therefore has no entitlement to demand that the Trustee makes any distribution of Trust property to him.

Pursuant to the Trusts (Jersey) Law 1984 (as amended), subject to the terms of the trust and any order of the court (the "Court"),¹ the Trustee is not under any obligation to disclose his deliberations as to the manner in which he has exercised a power or discretion and the reason for any particular exercise of such power or discretion.

Should Mr Hilsenrath, as a beneficiary of the Trust, wish to challenge the resolution of the Trustee not to release funds to him then we advise that he appoints Jersey counsel to make an application to the Court on his behalf accordingly.

Yours sincerely

Grant Brown
Director
Equity Trust (Jersey) Limited

As we have previously informed you, it had been called to our attention by Glenn Westreich (in his letter dated 13 February 2007, forwarded to you on 27 February) that a hearing was to be held in the Federal District Court in Oakland, California, on 2 March 2007 in the above matter.

Following the 2 March 2007 hearing:

- (1) the Court entered an order granting in part and denying in part Hilsenrath's motion for leave to file an amended counterclaim (we have obtained the publicly available order and a copy of Hilsenrath's amended counterclaim and attach those documents for your review);
- (2) the Court dismissed the complaint of Janvrin Holdings Limited, Crossgar Limited and Ryburn Limited, directed that default should be entered against those companies and permitted Nixon Peabody LLP to withdraw as counsel for those companies (we have obtained copies of the Court's case management order and the entry of default and attach those documents for your review); and
- (3) Hilsenrath has applied for a default judgment against Janvrin Holdings Limited, Crossgar Limited and Ryburn Limited (a copy of Hilsenrath's application is attached for your review).
